AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 30th day of November, 1854,

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of the Council, having taken into consideration the expediency of prohibiting the exportation of certain additional articles capable of being converted into or made useful in increasing the quantity of Military and Naval Stores (in pursuance of Her Majesty's Proclamation of the eighteenth February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four), are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Officers of Her Majesty's Customs do hereafter prevent the exportation of Lead and of Nitrate of Soda, and likewise of Blue Lias, Portland Cement, or any article commonly used in the manufacture of Marine Cement, to any place in Europe north of Dunkirk, and that the Officers of Her Majesty's Customs do permit the export of the articles herein mentioned to any other part of the world upon taking from the persons exporting the same, a bond that they shall be landed and entered at the port of destination :

Whereof the Lords, Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury and the Commissioners of Customs, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly. C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division, of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division, and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division, into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place ;

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Stafford, in quarter sessions assembled, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, representing that the number of polling places for the southern division of the said county is insufficient, and praying that Old Hill, in the parish of Rowley Regis, and Brierley Hill, in the parish of Kingswinford, may be polling places for the said southern division, within which such places are situate ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to declare, order, and direct, that the Old Hill, in the parish of Rowley Regis, and Brierley Hill, in the parish of Kingswinford, shall be polling places for the southern division of the county of Stafford ; and that the justices of the peace for the said county, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the said Act, passed in the third year of His late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such southern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that powers be vested in the Town Council of the borough of Warrington for providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the parishes or townships of Warrington, Latchford and Thelwall, being partly within the said borough, under the provisions of the said Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis."

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is, amongst other things, enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification; it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Orders in Council of the seventh April and eighth June last, to direct that burials should be discontinued in the churchyard and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned;

And whereas the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has represented that he is of opinion that the time for closing the said churchyard and burial-grounds may be extended;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said representations into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be discontinued in the undermentioned burial-grounds, as follows; viz.:

In the Churchyard of New Brentford, wholly from and after the thirty-first of March, instead of from the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

In the burial-grounds of St. Mary's parish, of St. Clement near the Croft, and of Croft Chapel, all in Hastings, to be discontinued from and after the first of May, instead of from the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

In the burial-ground of the Wesleyan Chapel, in the parish of St. Mary Magdalene, in St. Leonard's, Sussex, to be discontinued from and after the first of May, instead of from the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the eighteenth of October last, to direct that burials be discontinued in Padiham Churchyard, except in nine vaults therein mentioned; it is hereby ordered, on a petition of Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that Mrs. Stockport's vault, in the said churchyard, be added to the list of vaults so excepted; and that such vault may be used till it is full, but only by members of the family to which it now belongs, leaden coffins being used, covered in with concrete or masonry.

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in the following churches in the city of BRISTOL, viz.:

The Cathedral, St. George Brandon Hill, St. Barnabas, St. Augustine, All Saints, St. Andrew Montpelier, St. Thomas, St. Simon, St. Stephen, St. Philip and St. Jacob, St. Peter, St. Paul, Weir St. Matthias, St. Jude, St. James, St. Luke, St. Mary-le-Port, St. Michael Trinity, St. Werburgh, St. Matthew Kingsdown, St. John with St. Laurence, St. Nicholas with St. Leonard, St. Mary Redcliffe, Christ Church with St. Ewins, and in the Temple Church.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the thirteenth day of January next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said thirteenth day of January.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned places without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications; viz. :—

KIRTON, SUFFOLK.—In the churchyard from and after the first of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

TEWKESBURY.—In Tewkesbury Abbey Church forthwith, and from and after the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the churchyard.

TENBY.—Forthwith in the church (except in the family vault of William Richards, Esquire, provided the communication between it and the church be completely cut off), and in the churchyard, except in existing brick graves, in which each coffin shall be separately entombed.

FAIRFORD.—Forthwith in the church. In the churchyard the regulations for new burial-grounds are to be observed in the formation of new graves, and the reopening of old ones.

MIDSOMER NORTON.—Forthwith in the church, and from and after the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the churchyard.

SOHAM, CAMBRIDGESHIRE.—Forthwith in the Parish Church, in the Independent Chapel, and in the Baptist Chapel; and from and after the first of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the parish churchyard, and in the burial-grounds of the said chapels.

GUILDFORD.—Forthwith in the church of St. Mary, and in the Independent Chapel, in the parish of St. Mary, in St. Nicholas Church, and in Holy Trinity Church; and from and after the first of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the churchyards of St. Mary, St. Nicholas, and the Holy Trinity, and in the Baptist Chapel Burial-ground in Trinity Parish.

STOKE-NEXT-GUILDFORD.—Forthwith in the church, and from and after the first of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the churchyard.

TENTERDEN.—In the church, and in the old churchyard within five yards of the church and of all dwelling-houses; in the Presbyterian Chapel, and in the burial-ground of the same within three yards of the chapel.

DORKING.—Forthwith in the Parish Church, in the Wesleyan Chapel, and in West-street Chapel; and from and after the first of November, 1855, in the parish churchyard and in the burial grounds of the said chapels.

DURSLEY.—Forthwith in the Parish Church, in the Tabernacle, in the Wesleyan Chapel, in St. Mark's Church, in the Old Independent Burial-ground, in the Old Churchyard, and in the Wesleyan Chapelyard. In the New Churchyard and in the New Independent Burial-ground the regulations for new burial-grounds are to be observed.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the thirteenth day of January next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said thirteenth day of January.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Town Council of the borough of GREAT YARMOUTH, have, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to make further provision for "the burial of the dead in England "beyond the limits of the metropolis," presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating, that an Order in Council has been issued for closing certain of the burial-grounds in the parish of Great Yarmouth, and praying that powers may be vested in the Council of the said Borough for providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the said parish (exclusive of the parish of Gorleston and hamlet of Southtown) under the provisions of the said Act ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the eighth day of January next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in such borough, one month at least before the said eighth day of January.

C. C. Greville.

Downing-Street, November 29, 1854.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint the Reverend William Lewis Mason, B.A., to be Chaplain for the Island of Mauritius ; William T. Mercer, Esq., to be Secretary to Government and Auditor General for the Island of Hong Kong ; Robert Rienaecker, Esq., to be Treasurer for the Island of Hong Kong ; and John Montgomery Hill, Esq., to be Civil Commissioner and Resident Magistrate at Port Elizabeth, Cape of Good Hope.

Whitehall, November 29, 1854.

The Queen has been pleased to present the Reverend John Mitchell to the church and parish of St. Fergus, in the presbytery of Deer and county of Aberdeen, vacant by the death of the Reverend James Robertson, late Minister thereof.

Master of the Horse's Office,
November 15, 1854.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint John Richard Groves, Esq., late Major of the Essex Rifles, to be Crown Equerry, Secretary to the Master of the Horse, and Superintendent of the Royal Stables.

GENERAL ORDER.

Horse Guards, 22nd November, 1854.

The Queen having been pleased to command that a Medal shall be prepared to commemorate the success of Her Majesty's Forces in the wars in which they were engaged against the Kaffirs, in the years 1834-5, 1846-7, and in the course of the period between the 24th December, 1850, and the 6th February, 1853 ; and to direct that one of the said Medals shall be conferred on every surviving Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, and

Soldier, of the regular forces,—including the Officers of the Staff, and the officers and men of the Royal Artillery, and Royal Engineers, and Sappers and Miners, who actually served in the field against the enemy, in South Africa, at the periods alluded to,—excluding those who may have been dismissed for subsequent misconduct, or who have deserted and are absent ;—

The General Commanding-in-Chief desires that all claims for the Medal in question may be addressed to the Secretary to the Board of General Officers, Whitehall Yard, London.

Officers who served on the Staff of the Army,—as well as those now on half-pay, or who may have retired from the Service by the sale of their Commissions,—are to address their applications direct to the Board.

The claims of Regimental Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Soldiers, now serving, are to be forwarded through their respective Commanding Officers ; and Pensioners and men who may have purchased their discharge, are to transmit their applications to the Board (the former through the Staff Officers of Pensioners), duly certified according to the annexed form.

By Command of the Right Honourable
GENERAL VISCOUNT HARDINGE,
Commanding-in-Chief,
G. A. WETHERALL,
Deputy-Adjutant-General.

Torquay, Tor, and St. Mary-church Gas Act Amendment, and Extension of Limits.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Torquay, Tor, and Saint Mary-Church Gas Company intend to apply to Parliament, in the next session, for a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of their Act of Incorporation, passed in the last session of Parliament and called "The Torquay, Tor, and Saint Mary-Church Gas Bill, 1854," and the said Bill will, amongst other things, empower the said Company to purchase or take a lease of the following lands, or one of them, namely: land called shoards, within the Manor of Preston, otherwise Pruston, in the parish of Paignton in the county of Devon, which said land is bounded on the north west by land belonging to the representatives of the late Isabella Distin, deceased, on the north east by land of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners in lease to Robert Butland, Esq., on the south east by other land of the said Commissioners in lease to Thornton Bentall, or his representatives, and on the south west by a road called Sand-lane, and the other land to be purchased or taken on lease is land called Little Goosemore, belonging to the representatives of the said Isabella Distin, deceased, and in the occupation of Jeffery Goodridge the younger, and bounded as follows on the north and east sides thereof by land of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners in lease to the said Robert Butland, on the west by Sand-lane aforesaid, and on the south east by the said piece of land called Shoard's, hereinbefore described.

The said Bill will enable the Company to construct their gas works on such lands and to erect thereon all such works as may be necessary for enabling them to manufacture and store gas, and to carry into execution the powers already conferred upon them by their Act of Incorporation and to be conferred upon them by the said intended Bill.

The said Bill will also extend the limits of the said Act to the parishes of Paignton and Cockington and will empower the Company to light with gas the said parishes and the inhabitants thereof, and to lay down and maintain mains and pipes in and under the streets, roads, ways, public passages and places in such parishes.

The Bill will also authorize the Company to levy rates or rents for the supply of gas within the extended limits, and will alter, vary, and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with the obtaining any of the before-mentioned powers.

And notice is hereby also given, that printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 30th day of December next.

Dated this tenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.
